Ford F-450/550 Dual Wheel Hub Covers for use with OEM Nuts

For Alcoa Wheels 76329x, and predecessor 76320x

Ford changed lug nut specifications on model year 2017 and newer F-450/550 vehicles. Due to this change, the existing Alcoa Wheel hub covers (P/N 001004 and 001005) do not properly attach to the newly launched Ford OEM nuts. To accommodate this change, Alcoa Wheels offers new hub covers (P/Ns 001006 and 001007) to fit the new Ford OEM nuts for use with wheel P/Ns 76320x (obsolete) and 76329x. Both sets of covers – whose exteriors are identical – secure by snapping on over lug nuts and center hub.

Use the table below to identify the appropriate Alcoa Accessories for the vehicle by model year. Use of the incorrect hub cover may result in accessory detachment during use.
